

David Hughes

Partner – Dechert LLP

David is head of Banking and Finance Litigation at Dechert's London office. He specialises in advising banks and major finance and insurance houses on a range of regulatory, fraud and litigation matters.

David has a particular specialism with regard to financial regulatory reviews having been appointed by the FCA as a Skilled Person on the swap mis-selling review for 2 major banks. He is also experienced in fraud, asset recoveries, security enforcement, money laundering and other regulatory issues.