

CYRUS MODY
MANAGER
ICC-INTERNATIONAL MARITIME BUREAU

In 1992, Cyrus Mody completed a Bachelors degree in Psychology from the University of Mumbai, India. He qualified as a Master Mariner in 2003.

He started his career in the Merchant Navy in 1993 as a deck cadet on general cargo ships. Over the next 14 years, he has sailed in various ranks including Ship Security Officer and gained valuable experience on general cargo ships, bulk carriers, crude oil tankers and RO PAX vessels.

In 2007, he joined the International Maritime Bureau, dealing primarily with the issues of Piracy. He has also conducted investigations involving shipping, insurance and other related maritime matters.