

PHILLIP D'COSTA

Phillip is a partner in the commercial dispute resolution team specialising in commercial, fraud, technology and financial services dispute resolution, arbitration and ADR. He is a member of the London Solicitors Litigation Association, the Association of Regulatory and Disciplinary Lawyers and the Society for Computers and Law. He is vice chairman of the Indian Maritime Association.

Phillip has advised on a number of IT and technology, asset finance and leasing disputes and acts for a range of private sector clients including trading, IT and financial services companies as well as for partners or members of LLPs. He has been instructed on several group recovery actions involving businesses and individuals arising from insolvency as well as claims to the FSCS. Phillip has a particular interest in arbitration and transactional work involving India and has advised on a number of India-related disputes and transactions alongside Indian law firms. He is recommended as an expert in relation to disputes involving India or Indian parties and frequently speaks and writes on a range of legal issues.

Clients have praised Phillip for being 'excellent, thorough, fast to understand the entire context and practical in his approach' as well as for his 'perseverance and attention to detail'.